GALLERY NEWS

by Pat Geiger

First Friday Art Walk will be July 5, 2019

All art should be removed by Friday, June 28th and that will be the last day to submit work for the Vacation Vistas gallery show. We will hang the show Tuesday, July 2nd at 1230pm. First Friday will be July 5th and starts at 5pm and runs until 8pm.

The gallery will present Vacation Vistas for July. This is again a very popular show for fine artists and photographers as well. This is a wide open subject matter and we are expecting some amazing work to come in. We have campers that capture the wonders of Mother Nature which abounds in areas so close to home. We have travelers that roam in Europe and Asia and Africa that can bring us visions that many will only dream of. We will have ceramics, porcelain, jewelry and all of our two dimensional art. There will be so much to see.

We will also have visiting artist, Jenny Loughmiller. She has painted one hundred hearts for people that have inspired her and have brought her up in stressful times. Her work has started an international movement, The Hundred Hearts Project. You will find her work to be vibrant and inspiring and she suggests that we all find our own visions of gratitude to special people in our lives.

The June show was much smaller than our last two but the vision is tranquil and calming. Mountain, Streams, Lakes and Oceans brings peace to our gallery. We hope that you have had the chance to wander through our corridors and visit the restful and beautiful art featured. We want to thank all of our artists who consistently go out of their way to pick up and replace their art in our wonderful gallery. We would be nothing without all of you and we can't thank you enough for gracing our walls with your passions and beautiful art.

August's theme is Paintings from Photographs and is also the Porcelain Artist's show. You can expect to see the difficult art done by our very own porcelain painters and we appreciate how they are keeping this wonderful art alive. Paintings from Photos is always eye opening as we see how an artist translates a photo into an incredible work of art." The photos should be no larger than 5"x8" and will be displayed beside the artwork.

We thank our jewelers and our porcelain artists for their ever changing displays in the corner cabinets. Check them often as we have new jewelers coming in. We thank Phil Jenkins for bringing his functional pottery back through May. Brent Lowman will have his hand painted and intricate pottery in through June and our wood turners will be in the center cabinet through July. There will be so much to see so make several trips to our gallery cuz that's the only way to see it all!

Art Foundations Summer Workshops!

By Danene Taysom

Understanding color is important for an artist to be able to captivate the eye and establish an emotion in the painting. Through a series of fun exercises you will learn to understand values, tints, tones and shades, color structures as well as color harmonies. You will gain a better eye for color and greater confidence in color mixing while making useful value and color charts that can also be used for future painting references. Whether you are just starting out or have some experience with color this workshop will help you masterfully mix color no matter what your skill level or medium used. All levels are welcome.

Beyond the Color Wheel! Bootcamp II:

Heighten your ability to use color by learning how to exaggerate and enhance the colors you see. You will learn how to see color better and use strategies to get the most out of your colors along with learning how to step beyond basic color theory to a more expressive ways to paint color relationships. Painting from life at this workshop as well as informative exercises will be the way you will gain more confidence with color. All skill levels welcome; basic color theory knowledge is helpful.

Date: July 12 -13, 2019 — 9:00a.m.—5:00p.m. An hour break at 12noon; Lunch not included.

Cost: Register by July 1, 2019 and save!

This summer each workshop is $96.00 if paid by July 1, 2019. The 14-hour workshop is valued at $168.00. You save $72.00 by registering early. After July 1st cost is $168.00.

REGISTER NOW! Number of students is limited due to space! *Materials not included. When you register, material list and readings will be given.

Art Foundation Classes This Fall!

Foundations I An introductory art course designed to help you obtain a strong foundation in both drawing and painting. With ongoing instruction you will develop important art skill such as learning to see and execute visual relationships, express form, shape, space and value along with learning to organize strong compositions. Class assignments are given. *Art materials are not included.

Foundations II An art course developed to expound on what is taught in the Foundations I course along with meeting the needs of the artist with some experience. Skills you already possess will be strengthened along with gaining confidence in more advanced art techniques. In addition to working from direct observation, more in depth instruction will be given in drawing, color, value, and composition. Class assignments are given. *Art materials are not included.

Pocatello Art Center Board Meeting
June 5, 2019

President Carolyn Purnell called the meeting to order at 10:20am.

Excused: Peggy Bain, Bill Clegg

*Because it was the Member's Luncheon, Carolyn said this would be a short meeting, so she would pick and choose which items would be discussed today.

Treasurer's Report: Niccole gave a fiscal year-end report. It was also the completion of her first year as Treasurer. The last year had lower revenue than most years, but the expenses were lower too. So, PAC is in a strong position. Rent and Children's classes are up. Office expenses were high because of up-dating technology. Some categories were low. Pretty much stayed on Budget. Karen Vargason moved to accept the Treasurer's Report. Jennifer Fisher second. Motion Passed.

Fundraising: Niccole has joined Jennifer in heading the Fundraising Committee. They would like more people to help the committee. They also need more help from the Board. They have been focusing on Membership the last couple of months. They are encouraging Board members to invite more people to join PAC. They can be people who appreciate art, not just artists. They also encourage people to help at the Desk, even if it's just being a Sub.

Sagebrush: There will continue to be meetings to plan Sagebrush for next year. The Pocatello Arts Council is willing to help. Many other organizations will be included as well.

PAC History: Jennifer is trying to get a grant to cover the costs of publishing the History. Two will be printed. One will be a comprehensive history of the Art Center. There will be a few copies made of that. The other book will feature artists and photographs. This will probably be of more interest to the general public. They are hoping to have it published in 2020.

PVPS: Bea Cowger reminded that by paying dues to PAC, you are a member of the Photo Club. Their Annual Summer Potluck is Thursday, June 27, at 6:30pm. It will be held at Bea Cowger's house at 1421 Cottage. The food and company are great!

*Carolyn gave a special Thank You to Karen Vargason for the beautiful keychains she made as favors.

Special Guest: Carolyn introduced Eric Bagley to the group. He gave an informative presentation on his new business venture called SUP-LOC. His company takes art and prints it on t-shirts, hats, and other items. For every shirt sold from an individual gallery, a commission is paid to the artists. Their primary mission is support local art. His contact information is suplocart@gmail.com.

*Becky made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Rick second.

*Meeting adjourned at 11:20am.

*A delicious lunch was enjoyed by all in attendance.

June Annual Luncheon 2019

ONEIDA COUNTY MUSEUM

The Oneida County Museum wants to display and sell greeting cards that are by Idaho artists. They may ask for a small commission.

All cards must be protected by plastic and have the price and artist name visible so you can be reimbursed.
